Cheers! Next week, Chef Robert has something different for you to try on Taco Tuesday: Navajo Tacos! Navajo tacos are served on Indian frybread, a simple bread using flour, sugar, salt and lard. According to Navajo tradition, frybread was created in 1864, when the Navajo, who were living in Arizona, were forced to relocate to New Mexico onto land that could not easily support their traditional staples of vegetables and beans. Frybread gives tacos a delicious taste twist!

One last reminder that Monday is the last day to get your get your tickets for Easter Brunch (see menu here).
