

Eric Katz MD, MBA
Chief Medical Officer, Banner Estrella Medical Center

Eric Katz serves as the CMO of Banner Estrella Medical Center which is located in Phoenix, Arizona. Dr. Katz is a dual-boarded physician executive with more than 20 years of experience as a physician leader with passion for process improvement, physician mentoring, and health care operations.

Dr. Katz is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians (FACEP) and a Fellow of the American Academy of Emergency Medicine (FAAEM). He received his Master of Business Administration from the University of Arizona Eller College of Management, his Doctor of Medicine from Yeshiva University, Albert Einstein College of Medicine and his residencies in Emergency Medicine and Internal Medicine at Allegheny General Hospital.

Dr Katz has held many leadership roles including Chairman of the Emergency Medicine Department at Maricopa Integrated Health Systems (MIHS), Executive Chairman of Emergency Medicine at the University of Arizona College of Medicine – Phoenix and Academic Chairman of Emergency Medicine at Creighton University – Phoenix. Dr. Katz also previously served as the Emergency Medicine Residency Program Director at Maricopa Integrated Health Systems (MIHS, now Valleywise Health), as a board member at the Maricopa Health Foundation, as Chief of Staff at MIHS, and was president of the Council of Residency Directors in Emergency Medicine (CORD-EM). Recognized as an expert in developing and mentoring the new generation of physician leaders, Dr. Katz was awarded the AAMC’s Parker J. Palmer “Courage to Teach” award in 2014. His other service activities include numerous appointments to national emergency medicine organization committees, publishing over 40 peer reviewed articles and delivering over 250 invited presentations. He has mentored over 200 physicians at various stages of their careers.

Dr. Katz is currently a resident of Paradise Valley, AZ where he lives with his wife and two daughters.