

Three NEW films added to Cinema Society of PebbleCreek's Virtual Cinema!

Friday, May 1, 2020

Although we cannot gather together in our Renaissance Theater for Cinema Society, or visit our local movie theater to see the latest blockbusters, we all can enjoy a little bit of the best of both worlds. As we recently announced, in an effort to try to provide homeowners with some additional entertainment opportunities, our PebbleCreek Cinema Society connection has made it possible for us to watch first-run new films, Cinema Society-style via PebbleCreek Virtual Cinema! These are carefully selected smaller films, not the kind with car chases that play in the big theaters, but independent/art-house style movies. Every new release offered will be available through the individual distributors' websites and streaming services. This gives you the opportunity to open the virtual doors of theaters to screen a new theatrical release in the comfort and safety of your own home. You'll be taken to the PebbleCreek page to purchase and watch the film. The films offered here are not available to view anywhere else.

We are delighted to announce three new films have just been added to our offerings! In addition to the three previously announced films.

The three NEW films are as follows:

CRESCENDO – Release date May 5, available to preorder!

When a world famous conductor tries to create an Israeli-Palestinian orchestra, it takes all his skill and resources to overcome the discord and get them to play in harmony, rising to a tense and emotional finale.

When world-famous conductor Eduard Sporck accepts the job to create an Israeli-Palestinian youth orchestra, he is quickly drawn into a tempest of sheer unsolvable problems. Having grown up in a state of war, suppression or constant risk of terrorist attacks, the young musicians from both sides are far from able to form a team. Lined up behind the two best violinists – the emancipated Palestinian Layla and the handsome Israeli Ron – they form two parties who deeply mistrust each other, on and off-stage alike. Will Sporck succeed and make the young people forget their hatred, at least for the three weeks until the concert? With the first glimmer of hope, however, the political opponents of the orchestra show them how strong they are...

Loosely inspired by Daniel Barenboim's West-Eastern Divan Orchestra, Academy-Award nominated director Dror Zahavi ("Alexander Penn", "Everything for my Father") directs this gripping drama as a constantly growing 'crescendo,' raising the tension and conflicts until the last frame. Lead actor Peter Simonischek ("Toni Erdmann") stars next to a highly convincing selection of up-and-coming actors like Daniel Donskoy ("Victoria") and Sabrina Amali ("4 Blocks"). A remarkable theatrical movie and contribution to the world-wide efforts towards understanding, humanity and peace. Click here to rent Crescendo. Pre-order now. Available May 5, 2020, 12 a.m. ET. (FAQ) The price for 48-hour streaming period is $12.

Click to watch the trailer for Crescendo

Watch on iOS, Android, Apple TV, Roku, and Chromecast. Learn more.

THE TIMES OF BILL CUNNINGHAM

Told in Bill Cunningham's own words from a recently unearthed six-hour 1994 interview, the iconic street photographer and fashion historian chronicles, in his customarily cheerful and plainspoken manner, moonlighting as a milliner in France during the Korean War, his unique relationship with First Lady Jackie Kennedy, his four decades at The New York Times and his democratic view of fashion and society. Narrated by Sarah Jessica Parker, The Times of Bill Cunningham features incredible photographs chosen from over 3 million previously unpublicized images and documents from Cunningham. "A snapshot of a life that leaves you grateful for having encountered it." – Variety; "The minute Bill Cunningham starts talking in this charming documentary is the minute you fall in love with him."

– RogerEbert.com; "A unique New York story" – The Hollywood Reporter. Click here to rent The Times of Bill Cunningham. The price for a 3-day rental is $9.99.

Click to watch the trailer for The Times of Bill Cunningham.

You can watch the film on your desktop, tablet, smartphone, Chromecast or AirPlay. If you prefer to watch on another device, check <https://billcunningham.vhx.tv/help> before your purchase. Thank you for supporting independent films. Stay safe and enjoy the movie.

THE BOOKSELLERS

Antiquarian booksellers are part scholar, part detective and part businessperson, and their personalities and knowledge are as broad as the material they handle. They also play an underappreciated yet essential role in preserving history. THE BOOKSELLERS takes viewers inside their small but fascinating world, populated by an assortment of obsessives, intellectuals, eccentrics and dreamers. "The Booksellers" is a documentary for anyone who can still look at a book and see a dream, a magic teleportation device, an object that contains the world." – Variety; "A treat for anyone who appreciates the printed word." – The Hollywood

Reporter. Click here to rent The Booksellers.

Click to watch the trailer for The Booksellers.

You can watch the film on your desktop, tablet, smartphone, Chromecast or AirPlay. If you prefer to watch on another device, check <https://thebooksellers.vhx.tv/help> before your purchase. Thank you for supporting independent films. Stay safe and enjoy the movie.

As new films are available, they will be announced on the Virtual Cinema page on this website, located under Things to Do >> Activities Office>>Virtual Cinema. We can also share that the film DIANA KENNEDY will open May 22, so stay tuned for details for that. To see what current movies offered and how to watch visit the PebbleCreek Virtual Cinema page on the HOA website.

Source: Traci Baker. Director of Community Activities & Communications